Business Sponsorship

Your opportunity to donate to support children in your local community

Music Matters

Fun-filled, educational music workshops for young children in the Highlands

Why we do workshops

To help children in the Highlands feel good by

- Taking part in music and other arts
- Encouraging self-expression, creativity, and innovative learning
- Improving confidence and self-esteem
- Being happier and healthier
- Having a more positive outlook and higher aspirations

What your funding could provide

- Workshops led by music specialists in a local nursery or early primary class
- Visits from guest artists, including a professional bubble maker, musicians, a visual artist, drama worker and dancer
- Production of a DVD of the children singing, guest artists and end of year concerts
- Help for us to receive matched funding

How funding us will help you

- Receive regular updates from the children involved, and an invitation to the final concert
- Know your funding will make a real difference to local children
- Make a positive contribution to your local community
- Have your business logo on Artsplay Highland's website, social media, press releases and on participating schools' websites
- The amount you donate is tax deductible
